Libby was born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama.

Libby attended Baylor University where she earned a degree in Political Science and a minor in Business Administration. During her undergraduate studies, she interned at the McLennan County Criminal District Attorney's Office in the felony and Crimes Against Children divisions, which sparked her desire to attend law school.

After graduating from Baylor, Libby attended the University of Houston Law Center. During law school she served as a law clerk, gaining valuable insights into the legal profession, particularly in real estate litigation and transactions.

Upon graduation from law school, Libby relocated to Lubbock and joined the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree, & Milam, where she focuses on all aspects of civil litigation.
